GALLIPOLIS, OHIO, JULY 7, 1870.

Number 34.

Volume XXXV.

WHOLESALE GROCERS. HENKING. ALLEMONG & CO.,

WHOLESALE GROCERS

Produce, Provisions, and Liquors.

GALLIPOLIS, - - OHIO.

Manufacturer's Agents

RIFLE & BLASTING POWDER, Clifton Iron and Nail Co., BOOTS. HURT'S CELEBRATED VIRGINIA TO BACCO. Jan. 7, 1869.

GROCERY AND BAKERY

GREAT CHANGE!

NEW GROCERY, BAKERY, AND CONFECTIONERY Cor. 2d and Locust Sts.

PHILIP WEIMER,

hnown stand on the Corner of Second and Locust Streets, lately occupied by Gurnaus Baos., is now better than ever prepared to ecommodate the public in his line.

The public are respectfully invited to call.
Sept. 9, 1869

NEWS DEPOT.

RAPHAEL CEIPHEY BOOK AGENT, -AND BEALER IN-

CINCINNATI Dailies, Weekly and Monthly Periodicals, School Books, Stationery and Notions. SECOND STREET, ABOVE STATE, GALLIPOLIS, OHIO.

GROCERIES

Change of Front! Groceries, Provisions, etc.

A. W. LANGLEY. Has removed to the corner of SECOND AND SPRUCE STREETS near the new Woolen Factory, where they will be found with a large stock of Groceries, Provisions, &c.

CHEAP AS THE CHEAPEST. Call and see us. Nov. 18, 1869.

EMPIRE PLOW WORKS.

Spratt, Johnston & Co., (Successons to R. HALL & CO.) MANUFACTURES OF Steel, Cast and Wrought Iron PLOWS.

OULTIVATORS, SHOVEL PLOWS, HAR ROWS. And Wholesale and Retail Dealers in FARM IMPLEMENTS.

WARRHOUSE, 145 LIBERTY STREET, PITTSBURGH, PA. Feb. 10, 1870.-1y.

Choice Family Flour! Bar Always on hand, Al

At D. S. FORD'S. Jan. 20, '70.

BANKING.

PIRST NATIONAL

BANK GALLIPOLIS.

EDWARD DELETOMBE JOS. HUNT, VIOR PRESIDENT J. S. BLACKALLER, Capital Stock, $100,000.

DIRECTORS:-Edward Deteromee, Robert Black, Reuben Aleshire, Jos. Hunt, John Hutsinpiller, J. S. Blackeller. Buys Gold, Silver, U. S. Bonds, Coup

nd Government securities of all kinds. Bank open from 9 A. M. to 3 P. M. HENRIEG'S BUILDING, UP STAIRS.

J. S. BLACKALLER, Cashier.

Jan. 20, 1870.

DEAFNESS REMOVED

A CURE WARRANTED in all cases where deafness is curable, by LEWIS NEWSOM, GALLIPOLIS, OHIO.

Sugars OF ALL KINDS-at

BOOTS AND SHOES. H. N. BAILEY.

BAILEY & RIDENOUR. MANUPACTURESS OF & WHOLESALE DEALESS II BOOTS, SHOES, Grate Fronts, HATS, CAPS, Commission Merchants, LEATHER AND SHOE FIND-INGS.

> COURT ST., BET. SECOND AND THIRD, GALLIPOLIS, OHIO. Jan 21, 1869.

> > BOOTS, J. J. MAXON.

-DEALER IN-

HATS. CAPS

Leather, &c., &c.

Public Square, Gallipolis, Ohio.

DRUGS, ETC.

'SIVH

PAINTS, PAINTS

White Lead, Linseed Oil. Spirits Turpentine, Benzine, Varnish, Paint Brushes, Window Glass, dec., dec., For sale at Sanns' Drug Store.

COLORS in Oil, Common White Lead, Dry White Lead, Whiting Venetian Red, Lamp Black, Ochres. Snow White French Zine, Vermillions, Linseed Oil-Raw and Boiled &c., &c. Wholesale and Retail. RATHBURN & DROUILLARD.

Feb. 11, 1869. FINE PERFUMERY,

HANDKERCHIEF EXTRACTS, Fine Hair Oils.

COLOGNES POMADES, Toilet Soaps,

Tooth Scaps, And a large and general assortment of fin

TUILET ARTICLES.

At very low prices. RATHBURN & DROUILLARD. Feb. 11, 1869.

DRY GOODS, &C.

The Old Stand-by.

I HAVE this day returned with a new and Dry Goods. Clothing,

Notions, and

Fancy Goods

Hats, Caps, Shoes,

PINE ASSORTMENT OF FURS, &c., &c., FINE ASSORTMENT OF FURS, &c., &c., consisting of the best materials manufactured in this country, and imported from abroad, which I offer to all, who wish to buy cheap, serviceable goods, at the lowest figure west of the mountains.

I hope, by the experience of a long residence in Gallipolis, to give satisfaction to all who may patronize me. Thanking my former patrons I solicit a continuance of their trade, with the confidence of giving satisfaction in both quality and price.

Come, see, examine, and price for yourselves.

JOSEPH EMSHEIMER, PUBLIC SQUARE,

Gallipolis, - .

GROCERIES, &C.

D. S. FORD. Wholesale and Retail GROCER

If Medicine sent by Express on receipt of Provisions, Produce, &c., ALESHIRE' BLOCK,

Jan. 20, 1870.

STOVES, ETC.

BISSELL & CO.,

No. 235 Liberty Street. PITTSBURGH, PA.,

Summer Fronts, FENDERS, COOKING RANGES.

COAL AND WOOD COOKING STOVES &C. The Triumph Stove, for coal. The Jack-Cook Stove, for wood only. Are the best atoves for baking and cooking. We warrant their operation. They never April 14, 1870.—6m

DENTISTRY.

Dr. J. A. VAN VLECK. DENTIST.

OFFICE :- OVER BAILEY & HAYWARD'S DROS

GALLIPOLIS, - - - OHIO Treats all diseases of the Mouth and Gums

May 28, 1868. SADDLES, ETC.

H. R. BELL SADDLES

Harness, Trunks, Collars, Hames, Trace-chains, CURRY-COMBS, HORSE-BRUSHES, &c

COURT STREET. GALLIPOLIS, OHIO. March 11, 1869 .- 1y.

CARRIAGE MANUFACTURERS JAS. VANDEN & SONS

MANUFACTURERS

AND DEALERS IN

HUBS, SPOKES, FELLOES, SHAFTS, POLES, BOWS, WHEELS, PLOW HANDLES, &c. IRON, STEEL, NAILS, SPRINGS, AXLES, CARRIAGE BOLTS, AXLE CLIPS, THIMBLE SKEINS, WAGON BOXES, &c.

2d St., above Public Square. GALLIPOLIS.

May 13, 1069. WM. S. NEWTON, M. D., Attends Calls in the City AT ALL HOURS.

Particular Attention given to Surger OFFICE:-IN POST-OFFICE. Gallipolis, Nov. 7, 1867.

J. C. RATHBURN, M. D., Offers his Services to the citizens of Gallipo and vicinity.
OFFICE-At Drug Store of RATHEUR RESIDENCE—One door below Academy. Dec. 3, 1868.—tf.

BUILDERS.

T. S. & H. N. FORI ARCHITECTS

> AND BUILDERS.

MANUFACTURERS OF Doors, Sash, Blinds, WINDOW AND DOOR FRAMES

Mouldings, etc., etc.

Planed and Rough Lumber

OF ALL KINDS.

Boots,
URS, &c., &c.,
manufactured
from abroad,
to buy cheap,
figure west of

Having now a Large Stock of SEASONED
LUMBER on hand, we are prepared to fill all orders with which we are tavored, promptly and at Lowest Prices
T. S. & H. N. FORD.
Third Street. Jan. 30, 1868.

HOTEL. DUFOUR HOUSE

Gallipolis, Ohio.

THE undersigned has leased the DUFOUR HOUSE, formerly occupied by James E. Richardson. This House is situated at the upper end of the Public Landing Front Street.

The House has been thoroughly renovated The House has been thoroughly renovated, and supplied with new Furniture, &c., so that it is now second to none on the River.

Mr. DUNN, being one of our old Hotel-keepers, will give his personal attention to the business, and promises his friends, and the public generally, every accommodation they can decire.

JOHN DUNN,

HOTEL. American House!

THIS HOUSE, situated on Locust Street, opposite the Court House, is always open for the accommodation of day and week boarders, on terms as reasonable as any house in the city.

MILLINERY.

MILLINERY.

Mrs. JENNIE LOWRY, PUBLIC SQUARE, (UPPER SIDE,) "NEAR DUFOUR HOUSE."

A FULL line of Goods in both branches will always be kept on hand.

The public are cordially invited to Oct. 21, 1869.

Miss A. HILL.

CONTINUES THE MILLINERY AND DRESS MAKING BUSINESS at

CREUZET'S CORNER, GALLIPOLIS, OHIO. May 6,1869.-tf.

J. HOWELL, Dealer in Straw, and Silk Bonnets Ribbons, Flowers, Feathers, Silks, and MILLINERY GOODS. COURT-STREET, between 2d and 3d Street N. B. Hats and Bonnets Bleached, Pressed Lined and Trimmed etc. [Oct. 31, 1867.

MILLINERY.

Removal.

MRS. H. SELFRIDGE, having fitted up the rooms in the second story of the DECULLARD Block, Court Street, will keep constantly on hand a good assortment of

MILLINERY GOODS.

to order.

MILLINERY

FANCY GOODS. WAGONS AND CARRIAGES, Misses Andrews & Las-

ley, IN THEIR NEW ROOMS

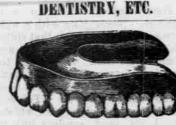

PUBLIC SQUARE 3d door from Court. We are prepared to give particular atten-ion to STRAW WORK, BLEACHING and PRESSING, or Coloring Brown and Black.

Torders solicited and promptly and carefully filled.

April 7, 1870

April 7, 1870. MILLINERY!

Misses Lasley & Sisser

D. W. CLANCEY, M. D. D. D. S.

ANEASTHETICS used in Extracting Teeth.

Special attention given to Oral Surgery.

OFFICE:-Near L. P. Magnet's Drug Sto Public Square, Gallipolis, March 4, 1869 ATTORNEY.

T. W. HAMPTON. Attorney at Law, Having opened an office in Gallipolis, O., offers his professional services to Banks, Banking Houses, Merchants, Mechanics and Farmers. Deeds carefully examined. Titles searched with dispatch and with care, and abstracts of title furnished to any lands in the United States; and taxes paid on same.

Wills drawn up with greatest care. Depositions carefully and correctly taken. Collections made promptly. OFFICE-IN THE COURT-HOUSE. Nov. 25, 1869.

We will buy for CASH,

Fifty Thousand Pounds of

Clean Wool. Delivered at our Mills,

CORNER SECOND & SPRUCE STREETS.

Ninety nine in the Shade.

A MIDSUMMER OUE.

DRESS MAKING Oh for a lodge in a garden of cucumbers! Oh for an iceberg or two at control! Oh for a vale which at midday the dew ou Oh for a pleasure trip up to the Pole With nothing but Zeros all ranged in a row Oh for a big double-barreled bydrometer,

> Oh that this cold world were twenty times co (That's irony red-hot it seemeth to me.) Oh for a turn of its dreaded cold shoulder

Oh what a comfort an ague would be! Oh for a grotto to typify heaven, Scooped in the rock under cataract vast: 'Ohfor a winter of discontent even! Oh for wet blankets Judiciously cast! Oh for a soda-fount spouting up boldly

Freezing my soul with a glance of here ye! Then oh for a draught from a cup of "cold pizen!" And oh for a resting-place in the cold grave! With a bath in the Styx, where the thick shado And deepens the chill of its dark running wave

From every hot lamp-post against the hot sky Oh for a proud maiden to look on me coldly,

THE MITTEN. The bull-dog barked on the top of the hill, And the lambs are skipping in gise; But I'm sad as the dickens—I am— My gal gave the mitten to me!

Ah, where will I go, and what will I do? I feel like a crazy bum-bee; By thunder I'll fight! I'll lick any man That says the word serres to me I'm really mad-be dogged if I ain't! I swear I will kill that she; I'll slather and slash, I'll murder that gal By thunder! she shan't mitten me!

No, I won't do that-I'll spite her I will I'll hang myself on a big tree; And then she will cry—she'll die of remorse For giving the mitten to me.

REDEEMED; OR, A FRIEND IN him.

BY HORATIO ALGER, JR.

Mr. Peterson, a New York merchant, here?" he asked in gentle accents. had occasion to make a trip to the west, during which he chanced to pass Peterson with surprise, recognized him inhabitants. He entered his name on the books of the "Metropolitan Hotel."

The recognition was mutual, as Mr. It is rather odd, by the way, that Peterson knew by the flush which rose strange a disregard to the fitness of "I come as a friend," he hastened to things. It happened to the writer say, with a view of re-assuring the once, to see a small unpainted wooden young man. building of only one-story, dignified "I have no friend," said the other in with the same big sounding title.

As there was little to occupy him in a sorrowful tone.

"Few are so badly off as that," said the hotel, and he felt unusually wakeful, he resolved about ten o'clock to friends forsake us, we have one Friend Five take a walk through the town, partly who never forsakes us." to obtain a view of a place new to a disposition to sleep.

became scattered, and he appeared to "You! Yet I tried to rob you only grimage to the town where his mother ably off, and find time to read books be in the outskirts of the town. last night." "I had better be turned back," "I saw that you were not a profesthought he, and was about to put his thought into practice, when there was driven by some necessity."

a sudden and unexpected interrup-"Tell me about it." A dark figure sprang out from the shelter of some bushes by the wayside, and placed a heavy hand on his shoul-eaten anything for twenty-four hours, somewhat startled by the suddenness able to make your own way. Why of the attack. "I want money. Give me all you tress?" have-vour watch besides, and be quick about it," said the other hoarse- me." "You are a robber, then?" "No matter what I am. You may call me what you will, only hand over ago I was clerk in a dry goods store in your money," said the robber.

as he drew out a pistol and leveled it at indicated the mound upon which he the head of the merchant. was a young man, as well as he could pany, and formed extravagant habits. distinguish, about his own height, but I exceeded my salary, and formed slighter in build. It appeared that debts, and then in order to pay them, the merchant had a considerable sum of money about him, which he did not feel disposed to surrender. He was a man of nerve, and constitutionally cool in his exigences which would have taxed the courage of most men. He ted and sentenced to the State's prison known doctor, who was passing out of moved his hand towards his watch for a year. I came out a week ago, the post office-"Doctor, how long will pocket, as if to deliver up his watch. determined to lead a new life. But no it take hanging to produce death?"

guardship of the law?"
"The pistol is not loaded," said the said the merchant, thoughtfully.—

"This young man must have been driven by some pressure of circumstances to the course which he had adopted .-I wish I had detained him a little longer and questioned him to this point." Mr. Peterson was not one of the self-righteous, but a generous, warmhearted christian man, who, conscious like extending a helping hand to those be as good as you can get."

who have been betrayed into error.— "Yes, sir," said the landlord. So he thought more than sonce of the young man whom he had encountered in so strange a manner, and resolved to make an effort to fall in with him again. He ascertained that the morning train started at seven o'clock, and another did not go until eleven. He alhe had originally intended to go by the

After breakfast he sauntered out once more hoping to meet this young man, in whom he had began to feel of Miller & Jones, dry goods dealers. way to Pioneer Run, where, under a friendly interest. It was very likely, He did pretty well at first, but he fi- the name of Billy McGee, she soon he thought, that having been defeated nally got wild and extravagant, and at ingratiated herself into the good will in this first attempt of the evening last stole $100 from them. It was of a crew of drillers, who first learn-previous, he had left the town; not found out, and after a trial he was sen- ed her to turn a drill and then securby one of whose good intentions toward him he could not feel assured. Still the merchant pursued his lonely walk, till he came to a handsome do with him, and told him so." church. Beside it and extending to the rear, was a churchyard with grey take him into my employment?" head-stones, on each of which was inscribed the name of one whose pilgrimage was ended. Casting his eyes casually over the graveyard, Mr. Peterson's eye detected a man's pros-trate figure stretched face down over in prison?" he robbed his employers, and has been resumed female attire, and now, with one of the mounds in an attitude indieating grief. His staff and broadtrimmed hat lay on the ground beside starve?"

A sudden thought led the merchant to enter the enclosure. He advanced do, he must starve or go back to steal-

The man raised his head, and Mr. Bleaching and Pressing done the night at a thriving town of 10,000 as the young man who attempted to

"Yes, I know who you mean." disposition to sleep.

Dosed to be friend you, if you will confide your troubles to me."

of which Mr. Peterson was the head.

Then for the first time he made a pil vegetables. They are now comfort-

> "I saw that you were not a protestional robber, but were probably firm. With a quiet step he entered the store where he had been a clerk. "You are right, sir, I was." "I was driven by my poverty-I may and I have no money." "What is the meaning of this? What "But how came you in this plight?do you want?" said Mr. Peterson, You are a young man who should be > should you be reduced to such dis "Because there is something against "Tell me, without reserve, and I will do all I can to help you.'

"Then, sir, I will tell you. A year our money," said the robber.

"Suppose I refuse?"

"You had better not," said the man,

"No," faitered Mr. Miller, "times faced with a long array of head-lines, to this effect: "The War of the Ele-Mr. Peterson looked at him. He but after she died I got into bad com

"I think I will keep my money."
"Yes; you have got the better of me," in a tone which seemed to blend "Then, Ralph, let me assure you, that I did not inquire into your story "He to lead an honest life?" "Yes, sir; God help me. It was would-be robber.

"Indeed! Then you did not really mean to murder me in case I refused only because everybody seemed to be against me, that I was tempted to turn back."

A Sharp Dog.—A drowsy D. D., who preaching, suddenly changed his whole who preaches in the Disciple's Church, manner in the pulpit, and adopted a mild and dispassionate mode of de-

At length they reached the hotel and entered "Breakfast for this young man," said Mr. Peterson.

The landlord hesitated.

on alone, he came up to him softly.

"Yes. engage him?"
"This morning."

tered his arrangements and determined to wait until the second train, though aware that he is just out of the State tuon of numerous beaux, stained her "What was he sent there for?"

ed the merchant quietly. wishing to run the risk of recognition tenced to a year in prison. He came ed her a position on a drilling well.

"Then you wouldn't advise me "Certainly not, sir." "Why not?"

"Then it seems he has been punish-till he stood beside the prostrate form. ing. When he applied to you for em-"My friend, what are you doing ployment, did you ask him if he had repented of his fault?" "No, I told him to clear out." "Then if he had been driven to lide, and very poor. They went crime again, it would have been the from Ohio to Minnesota barely three fault of you, and such as you. I have years ago, for their health. Under > thank you to treat him with as much hundred and sixty acres. Moved attention as myself." The hint was not lost upon the land- so unfortunately situated, their lord, in whose eyes Ralph Erskine, as neighbors helped them to put up a the employe of a New York merchant, log house, and they were able to hire kine rose by degrees, through his busi- hundred bushels of potatoes, five ness capacity, to be head clerk, and fi- hundred bushels of corn, two hun-"And as to human friends, I am dis- nally junior partner in the great firm dred and fifty bushels of wheat, and lived. He was elegantly dressed, and and newspapers. bore with him credentials from his

> "Is Mr. Miller in?" he inquired. Mr. Miller came forward. "I am Mr. Erskine, of the firm Peterson & Erskine, New York. eeting with you," said Miller.

"This is not our first acquaintance, Mr. Miller." "Indeed!" said the trader. "Did you not once have a young man in your employ named Erskine?
"Yes; but he turned out badly."

"Are you sure of that?"

"Why, was he related to you?" "I am the man." "You him!" "I am the man you sent to prison,

"Doctor," exclaimed a wag-gish Son of Temperance, to a well one Sort and Another."

me," in a tone which seemed to blend sorrow with bitterness.

"What have you to say why I should not drive you before me with the aid of this pistol and deliver you up to the guardship of the law?"

Inen, Raipa, let me assure you, that I did not inquire into your story from any idle curiosity. I stopped over one train expressly to find you if I could, and serve you. First let me ask you, have you made up your mind blasphemous expression, and then they are of the sort that will draw blisters, but they are quite skill-shop on Court street," replied the wag. The doctor gave utterance to something that sounded very much like a blasphemous expression, and then they are of the sort that will draw blisters, but they are quite skill-shop on Court street, replied the wag. The doctor gave utterance to something that sounded very much like a blasphemous expression, and then they are quite skill-shop on Court street, replied the wag. The doctor gave utterance to something that sounded very much like a blasphemous expression, and then they are quite skill-shop on Court street, replied the wag. The doctor gave utterance to something that sounded very much like a blasphemous expression, and then they are quite skill-shop on Court street, replied the wag. The doctor gave utterance to something that sounded very much like a blasphemous expression, and then they are quite skill-shop on Court street, replied the wag. passed on.

mean to murder me in case I refused to give up my money?"

"No, sir, I am not quite so bad as that. I only meant to frighten you."

"I am glad of it, for it is terrible to bring one's self to be willing to take a man's life under any circumstances. Go in peace, I will not expose you.—
But let me express a hope that you will strive to gain now a living in some reputable way, and not expose yourself to arrest as a criminal."

mean to murder me in case I refused to turn back."

"I am a merchant in New York, in the wholesale line. I have a large warehouse and numerous clerks. Can you be ready to take the 11 o'clock train with me?"

"Are you in earnest, sir?"

"Entirely so."

The dog always accompanies the divine to church, and the other Sunday, in the middle of a sermon, the dog got up and yawned in sympathy with the congregation, and straight way took his master's hat to him in the pulpit. The doctor continued his sermon, and the impatient dog production way took his master's hat to him in the pulpit. The doctor continued his sermon, and the impatient dog production way took his master's hat to him in the pulpit. The doctor continued his sermon, and the impatient dog production way took his master's hat to him in the pulpit. The doctor continued his sermon, and the impatient dog production way took his master's hat to him in the pulpit. The doctor continued his sermon, and the impatient dog production way took his master's hat to him in the pulpit. The doctor continued his sermon, and the impatient dog production way took his master's hat to him in the pulpit. The doctor continued his sermon, and the impatient dog production way took his master's hat to him in the pulpit. The doctor continued his sermon, and the impatient dog production way took his master's hat to him in the pulpit. The doctor continued his sermon, and the impatient dog production way took his master's hat to him in the pulpit. The doctor continued his sermon, and the divine to church, and the divine to church, and the divine to church, and the d stly:
"You shall find that I am faithful, the tail. The doctor took the hint,

For The Pleasantville (Pa.) Gaslight is responsible for the following story: There is a young lady in Cleveland, the only child of a bankrupt Syracuse N. Y., merchant, who "Do you know him, sir?" he said. is now supporting her parents in af-"It is Mr. Erskine, my clerk. We finence on a small fortune she made take the 11 o'clock train for New in the Venango oil region. When York, and therefore I will trouble you mistortune overtook her parentsof his ewn imperfection, always felt to be expeditious. Let the breakfast that was in 1866-- and she saw her father, whom she fondly loved, bending under the weight of want and de-Ten minutes later, seeing Mr. Peter-on alone, he came up to him softly. clining health, she secretly resolved that with her own fair hands she "Did I understand that this young would earn a competence for his declining years. With that thought pervading her whole being, and in "Excuse my asking, when did you full possession of her faculties, she provided herself with male attire, severed the beautiful locks which face and hands the bronze color of a ask- farmer boy, and with a small sum of money which she realized from the "You see, sir, he was in the employ sale of her trinkets, she made her back a few days ago, and has been try- From drilling for wages she went to ing to get employment as a heatler drilling for small working interests, with me, but I would have nothing to by which she became owner of interests in several fair wells. Having accumulated a little money she ventured to put down a well on her own account, succeeded, tried another. again succeeded, and at the end of "Why not!" exclaimed the landlord two years she left Shamburg with in amazement. "Did I not tell you $13,000, retired to Cleveland, proresumed female attire, and now, with hands and feet enlarged by toil, she ed for his faults. Do you want him to passes in her promenades the worthless butterflies of fashion with a proud consciousness of her superior

"But if he can't get anything else to worth, The New York Times tells us that sixty miles beyond St. Paul is a farm worked by seven sisters. The parents of these girls were both invaengaged him as my clerk, knowing his the homestead law the family secured past. He confessed all to me. I will a pre emption claim of the usual by a natural sympathy for a family was a person of more importance than men to split rails for fencing and to when he came to beg the position of plow the land. All the rest of the work has been done by the seven Five years rolled away. Ralph Ers. girls, and last year they sold nine Thursday morning Mr. Bonner's mare Pocahontas, trotted a mile on the Fashion Course, without a skip or break, in 2:18, which is the fastest time ever made by any horse in harness except Dexter. Pocahontas is a "A large firm, sir; I am honored in bay mare, fifteen hands high, with a black flowing mane and very long tail. She was sired by Ethan Allen, out of the famous pacing mare bearing her own name. Mr. Bonner paid $35,000 for her, the highest price which has ever been paid for any horse. She is eleven years old, a most beautiful animal, and so docile that she has been habitually driven in the park by Mr. Bonner's children. Details of the effects of the "Be not apprehensive. I will be ments; Heaven's Artillery Unlimbered; more merciful than you were. I will Vivid Fires and Stunning Reports; Bosgrant you an extension of six months." ton stormed with Small Shot and Del-Ralph Erskine stopped one night at the Metropolitan Hotel, where he was in Thirty or More Places; Narrow Esreceived very differently from formerly. capes, Fires, Fainting Fits, Terror-Stricken Damsels; Hundreds of Broken cinity of Franklin, La., of the prevapocket, as if to deliver up his watch. The highwayman saw the motion, and supposing he had secured his object, was placed momentarily off his guard. With quick eye, the merchant saw his advantage, and with a quick, dexterous motion raised his arm and suddenly wrenched the pistol from the robber's hand, and then said:

"What is your name?"

determined to lead a new life. But nobled and new life. But nobled a new life. But nobled and new life. But nobl word of this yet. Where did the man potatoes in a night. It is not stated whether they are of the sort that will > ministry for a boisterous mode of A SHARP Dog .- A drowsy D. D., preaching, suddenly changed his whole

WOOL!!

When the young man walked swiftly away, and left him to pursue his way back unmolested to the hotel, where

"You shall find that I am faithful, and remarking that the dog was problem ably right, dismissed the congregation."

"How heavy you walk!" exclaimed Mrs. Mackwhack, hearing ably right, dismissed the congregation. "Well, my dear," was the graft response "if you can get the graft respon back unmolested to the hotel, where he was stopping.

All had passed so quickly that when he reached his chamber, and once more found himself in safety, he could hardly realize that he had actually been assaulted by a highwayman. He would almost have thought that he had dreamed it, but for the pistol he had in his breast pocket, and now drew out for closer inspection.

There was nothing peculiar about it; it was small and not very valuable.

"It is not such a weapon as a professional highwayman would employ,"

"But you have had no breakfast.—

Come with me."

The young man hesitated.

"Do not hesitate. You are from this moment my clerk, and I shall so introduce you. Forget the past, and look forward to a bright future."

Ralph Erskine arose, put on his hat, and left the graveyard with his new friends. As they walked side by side through the large street they attracted much attention. But Mr. Peterson, by easy conversation restored the young man to a feeling of comparative fessional highwayman would employ,"

at the railroad station."

"But you have had no breakfast.—

"Do not hesitate. You are from that a great many persons spend so much tithat a great many persons spend so much tithet had a street of whisky up-stairs with any less on much time hunting after righteous-ness that they have none left in which to practice it.

A Boston minister says he once friends have grown younger during the past ten was nothing peculiar about it; it was small and not very valuable.

"It is not such a weapon as a professional highwayman would employ,"

There was nothing peculiar about it; it was small and not very valuable.

"It is not such a weapon as a professional highwayman would employ,"

The voung man hesitated.

"Do not hesitate. You are from that a great many persons spend so much tithet had a defer highteous-ness that they have none left in which to practice it.

A Boston minister says he once friends here, the preached on "The Recognition of Friends here, as he young man, do you believe in a future state?"

It is n Waddell Blazer & Co. COURT ST., ... GALLIPOLIS, O. D. S. PORD. Dec. 19, 1867 .-- tf. April 7, 1870.